MAINE BACK IN REPUBLICAN FOLD*Haines Defeats Governor Plaiside by a Plurality of About 3750.*LEGISLATURE WILL BE REPUBLICAN*Republicans Regain One of Congressional Districts Which Went Democratic Two Years Ago—United States Senatorship Still In Doubt—Four Republicans Prominently Considered for the Governorship in Connecticut.

Portland, Me., Sept. 9.—Maine turned back to the republican party in the state election today. William T. Haines, of Waterville, being elected governor over Governor Frederick W. Plaiside, his democratic opponent, who sought a second term, while the republicans retained one of the two congressional districts lost to the democrats two years ago.

Legislature Will Be Republican.—The next year legislature is expected to have a small republican majority, although returns before midnight were not sufficient to show whether the republican majority would be a bare one. Haines, a republican, or Senator Obadiah Gardner, democrat, will be chosen to the United States senate for the term beginning next March.

Republicans Make Net Gain of 18 Per Cent.

Returns for governor from 55 out of 88 election districts gave Haines, republican, 55,197; Plaiside, democrat, 52,784.

The corresponding vote for 1910 was Fernald (R.), 53,712; Plaiside (D.), 52,541.

These returns show a republican gain of 9 per cent, and a democratic loss of 9 per cent.

Plurality of 3750 Indicated.

If the same percentage is maintained throughout the state Haines' election is indicated by about 3,750 plurality, compared with 3,669 given Plaiside in 1910.

The Congressmen Elected.

The congressmen elected are:

First district—Asah C. Hinds of Portland, republican.

Second district—B. McGillicuddy of Lewiston, democrat.

Third district—Forest Goodwin of Bangor, republican.

Fourth district—Frank E. Guernsey, ex-governor, republican.

Hinds, McGillicuddy and Guernsey were re-elected.

Last Legislature Democratic.

Returns for the legislature showed eight republican and three democratic senators, and 43 republican and 35 democratic representatives.

Majority in the senate of 21 and in the house of 151.

The last legislature was heavily democratic in both branches.

Right Made on State Issues.

The republicans claim to have won their victory for the head of the ticket today by their attack upon the administration of Governor Plaiside.

They declined to discuss national questions, as the party leaders, many of whom are progressive, have been accused of a lack of sentiment until after election.

Some of them will take the stump within a few days against President Taft.

Burling's Election Claimed.

At a late hour the legislature stood: Senate—Republicans 13, democrats 24; House—Republicans 68, democrats 84, missing 19.

Totals on Joint Ballot.—Republicans 81, democrats 118, missing 30.

Republican leaders claimed on the strength of these returns to be assured of a sufficient margin to elect Haines.

On joint ballot the legislature would be: Republicans 83, democrats 78, missing 39.

Early Morning Returns.

Portland, Me., Sept. 9.—At 4 a. m. returns for governor from all but 27 small towns gave Haines, republican, 55,197; Plaiside, democrat, 52,784.

Missing towns gave the republicans 1,157, democrats 394. Haines' plurality is estimated at 3,750.

The makeup of the next house is as follows: Republican 68, democrat 70, missing 13. The senate makeup is: Republican 13, democrat 24, missing 11.

On joint ballot the legislature would be: Republicans 83, democrats 78, missing 39.

Greatest Fight in Years.

The struggle between the democrats and republicans in Maine today for control of the executive and legislative department of the state government, the four congressional districts and county officers was one of the state's most important.

The democratic party in the state struggle this fall on the defensive, having won control of the state government in the election of 1910.

They based their campaign almost wholly on national issues, although defending their course in the state administration.

Party Leaders to Stump for Roosevelt.

The republicans used state issues entirely as the weapons of attack, and refused to be drawn into any discussion of national affairs. The progressive element of the republicans was in full control of the party machine but with the approval of Col. Roosevelt, the split was postponed until after today's struggle.

Many of the leading state speakers in the campaign which ended with the election today, announced tonight that they were no longer in the republican fold.

Col. Roosevelt, for president. These leaders also claimed a greater part of the vote than were won today by the republicans.

Heavier Republican Vote.

The republican organization was able to bring out a greater vote than Haines in today's contest than was given Fernald the last candidate who was defeated two years ago, while the democratic vote for Plaiside showed a falling-off from 1910.

CONNECTICUT'S TICKET.

Four Names Prominently Mentioned in Connection With Governorship.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 9.—Many of the delegates to the republican state convention are already here, preparing to take up an active part in the preliminaries to that convention, which promises to be more than usually lively.

In his speeches Colonel Roosevelt gave his views of woman-suffrage, repeating the views he has expressed in the past.

He was virtually all in favor of woman suffrage because they believed it would assist working women to improve their conditions. Another condition in favor of this was that it would give women a voice in the government.

He said that the influence in behalf of good government which women would exert through the ballot in western states.

Colonel Roosevelt gave most of the afternoon to the women of Spokane. A meeting exclusively for women was held in the Auditorium, and another theater was engaged for an overflow meeting.

The colonel said he had not been induced to take up the cause of woman suffrage by women who devoted their time to convincing him that it was learned from women he had consulted in regard to other matters.

He said that women such as Jane Addams, who he had met and consulted on social and economic conditions among the workers of their sex, were the ones who had convinced him.

New York, Sept. 9.—The body of Mrs. Rosa Menachik Szabo, who met her death in a boat on the Hudson river, was exhumed today from its unmarked grave in New York city cemetery.

A autopsy will be performed tomorrow in order to determine definitely, it is possible, whether the woman was accidentally drowned as reported at the time, or whether causes contributed to her death.

A superficial examination today revealed no marks of violence.

Buried in Cheap Coffin.

The body, which Gibson, an executor of the woman's $10,000 will, was caused to be interred without ceremony July 25, was found in a coffin of pine, which was sometimes known, was contained in a cheap coffin and was clothed only in a night gown.
